Administrative Assistant

As the Loppet Foundation’s Administrative Assistant, you are the linchpin that keeps the Loppet running smoothly, providing critically important support across the organization. You provide direct support to executives; manage the Loppet Chalet office space; and provide administrative support to the fundraising, accounting, and HR departments. You report to the Chief Operating Officer.

As Administrative Assistant, you are responsible for:

- Overall office management, including managing incoming and outgoing mail, answering phones and responding to inquiries, filing, maintaining office supplies, and keeping order to Chalet office areas. This includes making regular trips between the various Loppet facilities and running errands.
- Bookkeeping support, including tracking invoices, making bank deposits, working closely with the organization’s accounting department and entering information in our customer relationship management (CRM) system.
- Administrative support for the fundraising team, including data entry, managing the membership renewal process, creating and sending donor and grant acknowledgements, supporting correspondence with donors, and supporting event planning.
- Coordinating basic human resources functions such as maintaining employee files, sending information to new employees, and updating records, among other assignments.
- Scheduling meetings for the Executive Director and other executives, and helping to prepare and distribute meeting materials.
- Providing general support to the Loppet Foundation team.
- Keeping the Chalet office common areas tidy, including scheduling cleaners and some light cleaning.
